Introduction

Why should we recycle? Is it so important to do that? In this book, there is a family. In the past, they didn't always recycle. They threw everything away. One day, they got a chance to know more about how rubbish affects the environment. They started to change their lifestyle. In the end, you can see how they live now and what they do to turn rubbish into useful materials. To protect the earth, it's time to do more recycling.
